Code of Conduct for the protection of minors for the prevention of harassment, gender violence and any other condition of discrimination pursuant to art. 16, paragraph 2, Legislative Decree no. 39/2021

DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS AND ATHLETES

Each member and each athlete, after having read and understood this code of conduct and the organizational and control model adopted, is obliged to observe the following provisions and, as a result, undertakes to maintain the conduct described above:

- behave with loyalty, probity and fairness in sport and beyond, constantly maintaining a conduct marked by the utmost respect for others;

- refrain from using inappropriate, vulgar and allusive language, including physical language, under any circumstances, even in play or as a joke;

- contribute to creating and maintaining a healthy, safe and as inclusive an environment as possible;

- contribute to the practice of healthy sports, providing maximum educational and training support to all members;

- contribute to the promotion of the playful, relational and social values of sporting activity;

- create a balanced relationship with those who exercise parental responsibility or who are entrusted with the care of members;

- use effective communication to prevent and discourage potential disputes or conflicts between members;

- prevent or address any offensive, manipulative, threatening or aggressive conduct;

- provide maximum cooperation in the work of contrasting and repressing any abuse, violence and discrimination;

- promptly report to the person responsible for abuse, violence and discrimination or the person responsible for the ATENEO SSD “safeguarding policy” any situation of potential harm to other members;

- respect the principle of solidarity between athletes, promoting mutual assistance and support;

- communicate one's aspirations to sports managers and technicians, evaluating, with a true spirit of collaboration, the ways of achieving educational and training objectives, also with the support of those who exercise parental responsibility or to whom his/her care is entrusted, also by comparing oneself with other athletes;

- communicate to sports managers and technicians any anxiety, fear or discomfort that concerns oneself or other athletes;

- prevent, avoid and report any state of subjection, danger or fear to oneself or to other athletes;

- respect and protect the dignity, health and well-being of all other athletes and anyone involved in sporting activities;

- always respect sports managers, technicians, other athletes and anyone involved in sports activities;

- report any injury or sports incident to sports managers, technicians and those who exercise parental responsibility or are entrusted with his/her care;

- avoid, on any occasion, physical contact or intimate situations with sports managers and technicians, reporting any inappropriate behavior;

- refrain from any dissemination of private or intimate photographic and video material received, reporting the circumstance to sports managers, technicians and those who exercise parental responsibility or to whom his/her care is entrusted, as well as to the person responsible for abuse, violence and discrimination or the person responsible for the ATENEO SSD “safeguarding policy”;

- promptly report to the person responsible for abuse, violence and discrimination or the person responsible for the ASD/SSD “safeguarding policy” any situation of potential harm to oneself or to other members.

I agree to respect and adhere to this Code of Conduct and to commit to the promotion of the principles contained herein.
